NZPI BEST PRACTICE AWARD: Climate change

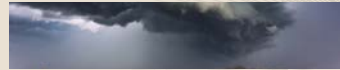

2024 Nomination Form

ABOUT THE BEST PRACTICE AWARDS

There is ground-breaking planning work happening all across Aotearoa/New Zealand. Te Kōkiringa Taumata | New Zealand Planning Institute (NZPI) Annual Awards celebrate these projects and the planners leading them with best practice awards in a variety of categories. Best practice awards are made to an individual NZPI Member, or to any organisation, group, or body whose members include an NZPI member. The NZPI Best Practice awards recognise outstanding creativity, innovation, and service. So, if you have a project, no matter how small or large, that is innovative and reflects best practice please take the opportunity to celebrate and share your work and learnings by submitting a nomination to the NZPI Annual Awards.

From the winners of these Best Practice categories, the Rodney Davies Project Award and the John Mawson Award of Merit, the Awards Committee select the winner of the Nancy Northcroft Planning Practice Award, NZPI's supreme practice award.

NZPI BEST PRACTICE AWARD: Climate Change

This award recognises the work of planners in developing and implementing innovative policies, plans and projects to address climate change issues in Aotearoa/New Zealand.

ELIGIBILITY

Any NZPI member, including student members. If the plan or project is developed by a group, planners must be a predominant part of that group. At least 50% of the planners must be NZPI members or eligible for full membership.

JUDGING CRITERIA;

1. How has the policy, plan or project avoided, remedied, or mitigated a climate change induced issue or threat OR How will the policy, plan or project avoid, remedy, or mitigate a climate change induced issue or threat.
2. How the community has or will be involved in developing, implementing, and sustaining the policy, plan, or project.
3. How the policy, plan or project will be monitored and what indicators will/have been used to determine the success of the policy, plan, or project.
4. What planning techniques and tools have been used to address the issue.
5. How innovative the approach is in terms of avoiding, remedying, or mitigating climate change in Aotearoa/New Zealand.
6. The central role of planners in the work.

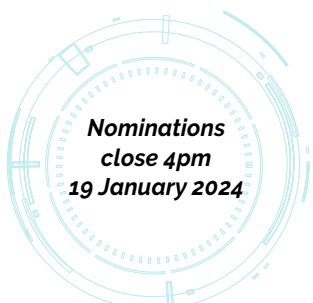

DUE DATE FOR NOMINATIONS

Please email your nominations to: Vanessa White, Events Manager, NZPI, vanessa.white@planning.org.nz no later than 4pm, 19th January 2024.

HOW WILL YOU KNOW IF YOU HAVE BEEN SUCCESSFUL?

If the Awards Committee select you or your project for a Best Practice Award both the nominee and the award recipient (if different) will be advised confidentially of their success prior to the Awards Presentations. The awards will be presented at the NZPI Annual Conference, which will be held in Kirikiriroa | Hamilton, 20 – 22 March 2024. If you are successful, we encourage you to attend the award presentations and celebrate your success with your peers.

Please note that all decisions made by the Awards Committee are final and discussions will not be entered into.

NZPI BEST PRACTICE AWARD: Climate change

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

Please ensure you complete all sections and attach all required supporting material as incomplete nominations will not be accepted.

Applicants must provide:

- A clear and succinct explanation of the plan or project which does not exceed 2 A4 pages.
- A detailed discussion of not more than 1,500 words which describes how the policy, plan or project addresses a climate change issue and addresses the judging criteria.

COPYRIGHT AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- No nomination for NZPI Awards will be considered unless the copyright and intellectual property requirements of the Awards programme are fully satisfied.
- There may be copyright and/or intellectual property implications in both the nominated project and in the materials that accompany the nomination. You must grant, or procure agreement to grant, NZPI the rights in the copyright and/or intellectual property of both the nominated project and in the accompanying nomination that are required to allow NZPI to select, edit and reproduce the works for the purposes of the NZPI BestPractice Awards and any associated promotion.

To do this, you must either:

- Own the necessary copyright and/or intellectual property and give NZPI the permission it requires OR,
- Obtain written consent from the owner(s) of the copyright and/or intellectual property to use the copyright and/or intellectual property for the purposes of the NZPI Best Practice Awards and associated promotion OR,
- Provide written promise that you have the rights you say you have. In this respect you must indemnify NZPI for any costs or expenses whatsoever that result from any proven third-party adverse claim.

A nomination will not be considered unless the required permission and indemnity is given by the owner of the copyright and/or intellectual property.

Please ensure you complete both part 1 and part 2 of the Copyright and Intellectual Property Rights Notification section of this nomination form. This is important as your nomination will not be considered if these sections are not completed.

REQUIREMENTS OF WINNERS

If you/your project is successful you will be required to supply NZPI with the following material:

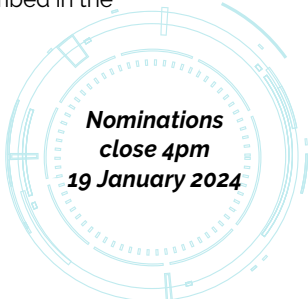

- A project video of no longer than 2 minutes duration about the nomination
- Four high resolution JPEG images of the project and the logos of those businesses/organisations/groups who should be acknowledged
- An A3 Poster depicting the project
- Text for the Awards citation. Note this must not exceed one-page double-spaced in 12-point Arial font.

This material must all be supplied to NZPI no later than 2 weeks prior to the start of the 2024 NZPI Annual Conference. You agree that the material submitted, including the A3 poster and two-minute video, may be used by NZPI to promote the planning profession
